Say HELLO to a summer full of fun and adventure! Welcome back The Harlem Globetrotters for their FINAL YEAR of The Globetrotter Experience. The exhibition showcases their trademark basketball wizardry in a unique and innovative show of skill, athleticism and humor 3 times each day in Red Gold Heritage Hall (closed Thursdays; D-7). And, after each show you'll get the chance to meet The Harlem Globetrotters up close and personal with photos, autographs and high-fives! Then be wowed by Chris Perondi's Stunt Dogs in the Opera House (closed Wednesdays; D-2) as the K-9 wonders weave, leap and race their way into your hearts. Plus, party with your favorite cartoon characters from Nickelodeon and Cartoon Network down in the Carousel Barn (D-4); see page 10 for details on who is here.

Citizen Spotlight

While you’re floating through The Flooded Mine today, say hello to Ramone. After moving here from Michigan, “Sarge” has kept the Mine’s prisoners in line for more than a decade, and even helped some of them develop their signature personas. What makes his job so enjoyable? “Our job is never the same each and every day,” he says. “We go through a routine, but we meet new people each and every day.”

- Fry Bread Filled With Apple or Cherry Maple Bacon Fritter

None of these appeal to you? Try our fresh twist on the classic pulled pork sandwich. Not a fruit person? Our cinnamon sugar fritters are sure to tickle your fancy!

What is the most adorable vegetable?

(Answer: The cucumbers.)
Feast On The Flavors Of Summer

Nothing says summer quite like a good BBQ meal. With the smells of pulled pork and barbeque sauce wafting through the air, it won’t be a surprise when you start to feel your stomach rumbling. Satisfy your appetite with a trip to the resident spot for all things BBQ on park, Riverside Ribhouse (C-4). Complete with a menu of BBQ classics, such as ribs, smoked beef brisket, and baked beans, to kids meals and salads, you will find something to please every member of the family. Get ready to get your BBQ on down at the Ribhouse during the Star-Spangled Summer Festival!

INSIDER TIP — If you’re craving a barbecue sandwich, but aren’t near the Riverside Ribhouse, go to Annie’s Grill Shack (F-6)! Here you’ll find the classic pulled pork sandwich, as well as NEW bacon wrapped turkey legs and bacon wrapped smoked sausages.

NEW ALL-AMERICAN FUN IN FRISCO FREIGHT CO. BARN

Don your gardening gloves and get your hoe and spade ready, the season is here for planting! Step inside Outdoor Missouri (G-3) on Hill Street and discover an array of statuaries, stepping stones, gazing balls, rain gauges, mailbox covers, flags, address markers, fountains, bird baths & feeders and more that are ready to take your outdoor space from ordinary to extraordinary!

Find popular motifs like frogs, squirrels, birds, butterflies, owls, turtles and even GARDEN Gnomes! And, there's solar everything including stepping stones and wind spinners. Even the kids in your family can pick out that special something for them to get into the great outdoors. Help them find their green thumb with their very own tool kit, including a trowel, rake, and shovel, which they can then use to grow sunflowers, the vegetables to make salsa, or herbs!

WARNING: High levels of fun can be found at the Frisco Freight Co. Barn (E-7) from incredible toys and trinkets for kids of all ages to hands-on activities like...

- Decorate Your Own Cookie
- Build Your Own Model Car
- Design A Custom Frisbee
- Make Your Own Sand Art
- Decorate A Tie-Dye T-Shirt
- Play Dress Up For Boys & Girls
- Any Many More!

Each activity can be purchased and completed in under 30 minutes, allowing parents and kids to connect creatively while having fun. And, here's where you'll find fun gizmos and gadgets...good old-fashioned toys like cuddly plush, games, scented lotions and sugar scrubs for kids. The Frisco Freight Co. Barn is also carrying Thinking Putty—the fun, imagination-inducing putty that provides creative entertainment for hours. Plus, the Frisco Freight Co. Barn is your Harlem Globetrotters headquarters with jerseys, headbands, wristbands, drawstring bags, touring tee-shirts and of course, BASKETBALLS in 2 sizes!

SPOONS NOT JUST FOR SOUP

Looking for a unique, statement piece of jewelry? Mark Scarbrough, the craftsman at The Bent Spoon, has just what you’re looking for! Having been trained in the craft of spoon jewelry, Mark has been making spoon jewelry for almost 10 years, and is starting his fourth year at Silver Dollar City. “I love working here at SDC especially talking with the guests and fellow employees,” says Mark.

You can find Mark right outside of the entrance to the White River Ladies’ Mercantile (D-5) making jewelry from spoons and forks, as well as creating flower vases, keychains, and wind chimes all from flatware. While you may not notice it just by looking at the different pieces of art, some of the flatware that Mark uses dates back to the late 1800s and early 1900s!

Do you have a special piece of flatware that you want made into jewelry? Bring that to Mark and he can custom make something truly unique for you. Make sure that you stop by The Bent Spoon (D-5) today, spooner rather than later!

SWEETER THAN CANDY

Step into the wonder that is Brown’s Candy Factory (H-6) and you’ll be greeted with sweetness unlike any other – and that’s just Miss June that we’re talking about. Master Candy Maker, June Ward, says she has the sweetest job on earth. Having worked at Silver Dollar City for five decades, June has hundreds of flavors in her credits, turning out 90,000 lbs. of candy each year. While peanut brittle and fudge are guest favorites, Miss June is always dreaming up new concoctions, from bacon brittle to peanut butter cookies dipped in tiger’s butter, saying “I can’t wait to try it!”

As much as we’d like to bottle up Miss June and take her home with us, the fudge from Brown’s is the next best thing. Having over 13 different flavors from classic chocolate fudge to maple pecan to s’mores, you’re sure to find something to tickle the fancy of everyone’s sweet tooth!

Ever wonder how the fudge is made? Come watch Miss June and her team of candy craftsman in action during a candy making demonstration, and see what all goes in to get that delicious fudge. Be sure to get that fan favorite fudge to take home with you!

THE PEARL SHACK

Pick a pearl from our fine selection of oysters where 1 out of every 5 oysters have 2 pearls inside it, then get it set an array of jewelry! Pearl colors vary from white and pink to purple and black.

TRENDS MEET TRADITION
AT HAZEL’S BLOWN GLASS

Beautiful ring holders are one of the hottest trends this year. But why buy one from a selection of three at the local box store, when you can get a one of a kind ring holder here at The City? Made right here on park by our talented craftsman at Hazel’s Blown Glass (G-6), these ring holders are the perfectly practical, not to mention beautiful, souvenir to take home. Never again worry about misplacing your ring when you can rest assured that it’s sitting safely on your Silver Dollar City ring holder. Need some time to contemplate which color you should buy? Mull it over while watching Shawn Watt during the blown glass demonstration.

Shawn has followed his passion for glass blowing across the country. When he took his first glass blowing class 10 years ago in St. Joseph, Mich., he loved it so much he begged the instructor for a job. Later, visiting Silver Dollar City from North Carolina, he found there was an opening in the blown glass shop and moved here to work the next week. Now a Master Craftsman, Shawn loves the fluidity of glass, creating one-of-a-kind pieces of art. Don’t miss your chance to take this tradition home! Stop by Hazel’s Blown Glass (G-6) today!

Perhaps the only thing more fun than lighting a new candle, is making one! Tucked into the heart of Midtown, Carrie’s Candles (G-4) has its very own dipping station for just the occasion. But don’t let the fun stop there – try an Extreme Dipper candle! These NEW large candles are available in the shape of a lighthouse, a peace sign, a cat, an owl, and a rope! Just pick the design that you want and then go to town dipping in the seven different wax colors that Carrie’s has. The possibilities of creations are endless with these perfectly, practical and fun souvenirs!

Before you dip your candle, learn about candle making from craftsman, Gene Evans. Carrying on a craft that was essential throughout much of history is important to him, and in his six years as a craftsman at Silver Dollar City he has found that guests love the background and the artistry that goes into each candle. He especially enjoys the challenge and creativity in carving layered colorful candles.

Whether dipping a candle for the first time or the fiftieth, you’ll be sure to have fun at Carrie’s Candles today!
